

LAKWOOD
THEATRE COMPANY

Are you a High Schooler with a passion for playwriting?

>>> This is your chance to work with professional directors and actors and to gain insight, experience and feedback about your play. Discover how your work is interpreted by veterans of the theatre and learn how to workshop your script with professionals.

Young Playwrights

Festival

Submission Deadline: Oct. 3

Selection Announced : Nov. 8

Staged Reading: Jan. 28

To learn more about how to submit your play, visit lakewood-center.org

Scripts will be read by theater professionals, who will look at your storytelling, plot structure, characters and dialogue. Finalists will receive a staged reading of their play at Lakewood Theater as part of the Fertile Ground Festival on January 28. Each playwright will receive a stage manager, a company of professional actors & a director.

Stage Manger, Director Interns: If you are a high school Junior or Senior who is not a playwright but is interested in shadowing/observing stage management or the directors, please submit your resume and a one-page cover letter telling us more about who you are and about your goals in the theater.