September 13 - October 20, 2024
 by Karel Čapek
 Adaption by Matthew Zrebski
 Directed by Matthew Zrebski

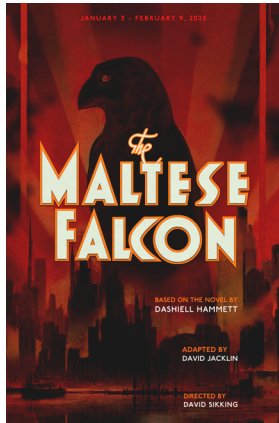

Artificial Intelligence or AI is today's hot topic. However, in 1921, playwright Karel Čapek envisioned a world with millions of highly efficient humanoid robots that love nothing and have no will of their own. But what happens when the president of the League of Humanity seeks to protect the robots and ensure they are treated like people? A prescient look at AI and new technologies.

November 8 – December 15, 2024

Based on the movie classic set in the 1940s the musical follows 9-year-old Ralphie Parker and his quest for the Holy Grail of Christmas gifts—an Official Red Ryder carbine-action 200-shot Range Model air rifle. January 3 - February 9, 2025

 Adapted by David Jacklin
 Directed by David Sikking

In this comedy mystery thriller Sam Spade, a world-weary private dick, is running a not-very successful operation with his partner Miles Archer. Enter Miss Wonderly (if that is her real name), who offers cash for them to tail a man who has abducted her young sister. Then Archer ends up dead. All in pursuit of the Black Bird.

FEBRUARY 28 - April 6, 2025
 By Michael Frayn
 Directed by Don Alder

In theatre parlance, “noises off” refers to commotion in the wings. In Frayn's play, the noises are the backstage yelps and battle cries by third-rate touring actors who are supposed to be presenting a saucy little sex farce called Nothing On. Everything goes wrong except the things that should go wrong. With a plot involving wayward plates of sardines, misplaced clothing and an Arab sheik, Noises Off has been the most requested play to be restaged by the theatre's subscriber audience.

April 25 - June 8, 2025
 Music and lyrics by Tim Minchin
 Book by Danny Rubin
 Based on the 1993 film of the same name, which featured a screenplay co-written by Rubin
 Directed by Bryce Britton

Phil Connors, an arrogant Pittsburgh TV weatherman who, while on assignment covering the annual Groundhog Day event in Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania, finds himself in a time loop repeating the same day again and again. Laurence Olivier Award winner for Best New Musical.
