Nov. 6 – Dec. 20, 2026
Music and Lyrics by Irving Berlin with Book by David Ives and Paul Blake based upon the Paramount Pictures film
Directed by Dan Murphy; Music
Director: Cyndy Ramsy-Rier; Assistant
Director/Choreographer: Laura Hiszczynskij

Two army buddies have a successful song-and-dance act after the war. With romance in mind, they follow a pair of beautiful singing sisters to a Vermont lodge, which just happens to be owned by their former Army commander. The show features classic Irving Berlin hits such as "Blue Skies," "Sisters," and the unforgettable title song, "White Christmas."

Mar. 5 – Apr. 11, 2027
By Thornton Wilder
Director: Karlyn Love

On May 7, 1901, in the fictional town of Grover's Corner, milk is being delivered, and breakfast is on the stove. We meet the town's gossips, the baseball-playing boys, and the choirmaster with a secret sorrow. Soon, teenagers George Gibbs and Emily Webb will go from friends to puppy love to their wedding day and beyond—two families forever joined. A masterpiece of writing, it reflects who we are, who we hope to be, and how intimately we are intertwined.

Sept. 11 – Oct. 18, 2026

By Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman
Director: Don Alder

In this 1936 Pulitzer Prize-winning comedy, getting to the altar in difficult times has never been funnier! Alice Sycamore invites her fiancé's parents to meet her family. The Kirbys are stuffy, self-important, and wealthy, while the Sycamores are good-hearted lunatics with little visible means of support. Lifestyles and philosophies collide, with hilarious results.

Book by Marshall Brickman and Rick Elice; Music and Lyrics by Andrew Lippa; Based on Characters Created by Charles Addams
Director: Bryce Britton; Music Director: Alex Trull; Choreographer: Chynna Rae Shurts

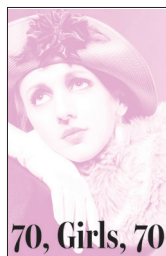

A comic musical that embraces the wackiness in every family and every father's nightmare. Wednesday Addams, the ultimate princess of darkness, has grown up and fallen in love with a sweet, smart young man from a respectable family – one her parents have never met. Everything will change for the whole family on the fateful night they host a dinner for Wednesday's "normal" boyfriend and his parents.
